

Translating an English story to Arabic

The Lost Little Bunny

One sunny morning, a little bunny named Benny was picking flowers near his home. He was so busy looking at the colorful butterflies that he didn't notice how far he had wandered.

When Benny looked around, he couldn't see his house anymore.

"Oh no," he whispered. "I'm lost."

Just then, a friendly squirrel came by.

"What's wrong?" she asked.

"I can't find my way home," Benny said.

"Don't worry," said the squirrel. "We'll find it together."

As they walked through the forest, they met a wise old owl.

"Have you seen a bunny's home?" the squirrel asked.

The owl smiled and pointed with his wing.

"Follow the little stream. It will lead you there."

Benny and the squirrel thanked the owl and followed the stream. Soon,

Benny saw his cozy little home.

His family ran outside and gave him a big hug.

"I'm so glad you're safe," his mother said.

Benny smiled.

"Next time, I'll stay close to home."

The End.

الأرنب الصغير الضائع

في صباحٍ مشمس، خرج أرنب صغير اسمه بيني ليجمع الزهور بالقرب من منزله. وبينما كان يراقب الفراشات الملونة، ابتعد دون أن ينتبه. وعندما نظر حوله، لم يجد منزله.

قال بخوف:

"لقد ضعت"

مرت سنجابة لطيفة وسألته:

"ما بك؟"

قال بيني:

"لا أستطيع العثور على طريقي إلى المنزل"

ابتسمت السنجابة وقالت:

"لا تقلق، سنجده معاً"

وأثناء سيرهما، قابلا بومةً حكيمةً.

سألتهما السنجابة:

"هل رأيتم منزل الأرنب؟"

ابتسمت البومة وقالت:

"اتبعا الجدول الصغير، فهو سيقودكما إليه"

شكرها بيني والسنجابة، وسارا بجانب الجدول حتى وصلا إلى المنزل.

ركضت عائلة بيني لاستقباله وعانقته بحب.

قالت أمه:

"الحمد لله أنك بخير"

ابتسم بيني وقال:

"في المرة القادمة، لن أبتعد عن المنزل"

النهاية.